

A rare jewel, Glencar House Hotel, is imposing among its' ancient bogs, verdant woodlands, remote and unspoiled, the pure and dynamic waters of the Carragh River: magnificently accentuated by Carrantouhill, foremost of the majestic MacGillycuddy Reeks, Irelands highest mountains.

Awesome scenery, warm Irish hospitality aromas of delightful food unfold and entwine with the fragrance of turf fires like, fine old whiskey, 'blissful inebriation'. Mellowed with age, enraptured in history. Glencar House, a bastion to fine Celtic hospitality for over 300 years, "now you're talking history" - ancestry and real roots. Get a feel - This grand ole Country House Hotel is spectacularly placed on what would have been the seat of Druid mysticism hauntingly hidden in primeval oak woods, "if only trees would talk", and ringed by stately mountain vistas. For your discovery, Glencar offers a unique insight into the culture, flora and fauna of a bygone era and then blackthorn, whitethorn and honeysuckle blossoms, fuchsia and rhododendron scattered in wild profusion.

Above map part of the spectacular Kerry Way.

GET LOST
& FIND YOURSELF
Glencar House Hotel

Glencar, Co. Kerry, Ireland

Tel: +353 (0)66-9760102

Fax: +353 (0)66-9760167

e-mail: info@glencarhouse.com

Website: www.glencarhouse.com

Murphy Print & Design 064 34650

Glencar House Hotel

"I am monarch of all I survey"

A. Selkirk

Peace at journeys end.

Glencar, a place so rare, serene and precious you will zealously protect your discovery, to share with your most intimate friends.

The hotels tastefully appointed décor in all en-suite bedrooms and cheerful dining room outlooks the woods, mountains and our very own ogham or “standing stone”. Food is a priority and quality carefully supervised by vigilant owners. Traditional Irish Cuisine featuring organic, free-range and natural ingredients where possible. Good things, Kerry, local Trout, Salmon and Lamb. There is always a variety, choice and selection in all our five course dinners. Breakfast is get-goodness-wholesome, a “Full Irish” with a nice fresh fruit buffet and natural yoghurts.

Mr. & Mrs. Heintz Stialmann
Caragh Lake 11&13.5lbs 2002

Meanwhile, back in the Inn, a delightful cosy in house bar features the best of Ireland and all things Celtic. Of course Guinness and pure pot triple distilled Irish Whisky and the best Scotches. You are sure to unwind and enjoy special company, make new friends and who knows, play professional pool, relax with a book from the library, or join in some good Irish music and craic.

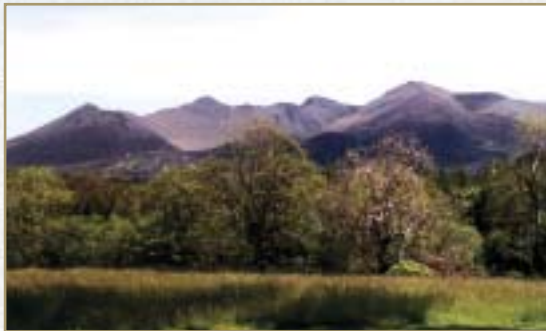

It's a place of profound peace and quiet serenity, a place to be, like no other. Magical.

Andy Beadsley Beat No. 5, 7lbs Spring 2002

The Caragh River, the standard of purity by which the European Community measure water quality.

"I come from haunts of cote and heron I make a sudden sally
I sparkle out amongst the fern to bicker down the valley.

One of many outstanding local championship links courses.

Adjacent to championship golf courses, blue flag beaches as well as being part of the renowned Kerry Way, walking and cycling tours arranged on request.

Peace at Journey's End

“Take it from me, there is no greater discovery this side of heaven”. (Quote: Doodles Moore, syndicated columnist)